We are pleased to announce that we have completed the new HANDBOOK for the GCOMS campaign such as the GCOMS 2018 Statement!

The GCOMS Handbook is coming!

We are proud to announce the publication of the new GCOMS handbook. You’ll find in it theoretical explanations on military spending, such as a guide on how to campaign over military spending. You’ll find tips on how to organize a lobby campaign and tips on how to raise public awareness over military spending. The handbook will be available in English, Spanish and Catalan.

Let’s take action to cut military spending and fund human and environmental needs!

Presentation of the GCOMS 2018 Statement

We just have published the GCOMS 2018 Statement! More then ever, we need more people involved in the campaign to ask government to cut military spending to reallocate it to fund human and environmental needs. The GCOMS 2018 statement is now available in English on our website and will be soon available in Spanish and French to,
